

At Skatell's of Spartanburg, one of our favorite products is our line of collectible slider bead sets. This collection of bracelets, watches, earrings, and necklaces are completely customizable through the addition of your choice of over 2000 unique beads that can be used to mark milestones in yours or your family's life! In other words, you can tell your story through your jewelry.

Glass beads to Swarovski crystal beads to precious metal beads can all be combined to weave a tapestry of memories. They also open opportunities for gift giving for years to come, as new beads can be added to mark new important moments such as graduation, marriage, children, and career moves.

Visit us at Skatell's in Spartanburg to see how you might be able to tell your story in a unique way!

Click the image below to visit the Reflection Beads website see the selection of styles available.

template joomla